

Mike Broward is a solo entertainer and a recent transplant to the Nashville area. He works in a nation-wide niche of music that caters to a diverse crowd. He does club dates and many fundraisers, concerts and songwriter

His latest journey began in 1999 with the San Diego-based group, Koko Loco, where he was lead guitarist and vocalist. Koko Loco produced one CD and started touring nationally as Parrothead fund raisers and gigs. In 2005 the group reformed under the name Stars On The Water, continued to tour and recorded 2 CDs, "Stars On The Water" and "Under the Covers". The SOTW released in 2005 contained Mike's song "Happens In Key West Never Happened" awarded by Bar Music.com as Song of the Year. This song has grown a life of its own with many releases on compilation CDs, DVDs, and has been recorded by several different artists. It was most recently featured in episodes of The MTV Reality shows, "Made" and "Rockers".

In addition to the band CDs, Mike has released his music on solo CD efforts including his song writing in the 2000 release, "Sampler", the 2006 "My Adventure", the 2009 release, "Parrothead Rehab" and his most recent effort "Margarita's And Moonshine". His music is played daily on a variety of terrestrial radio, college radio and internet radio formats.

After relocation from San Diego to Nashville, TN, Mike has pursued songwriting and a solo entertainer career, netting nominations from The Margarita M.A.F.I.A. for "Musician Of The Year" in 2008 and "Album Of The Year" in 2009. The 2009 release, "Parrothead Rehab" has struck a nerve in the Parrothead world that has resulted in a nation-wide niche-following of Mike's efforts. His latest release, "Margaritas And Moonshine" explores the collision of tropical and country music.

Mike has been associated with ASCAP since 1991, as a writer and publisher, and through the years has been awarded popular panel awards 7 times.

In addition to a fulltime musician's schedule, Mike's music-personality articles and product reviews have been featured in Premier guitar Magazine. He has had a long career in music merchandising, running many high-end guitar shops and serving as a showroom manager for the Carvin Corporation in San Diego. He remains an endorsed artist and user of Carvin guitars, Taylor guitars, Gibson guitars and Line Six products.

Mike also wrote the music to the musical play, Tenderfoot.

